

Water Parks in Istanbul

There are three main water parks in Istanbul with Aqua Club Dolphin in Esenyurt, Aqua Marine in Buyukcekmece, and Marina Aquapark Waterland in Tuzla. The Eser Diamond Hotel in Silivri also has a couple of slides and can be a decent budget-friendly option.

In general, the water parks in Istanbul are not world-beaters of any sort, but they can satisfy the needs of the average tourist.

Aqua Club Dolphin

At a distance of 30 km, Aqua Club Dolphin in Esenyurt is the closest water park to Sultanhamet and Taksim. It's also the most popular and the biggest around with four large swimming pools and five on-site restaurants.

Entrance Fee Pricing

70 TL for men / 60 TL for women / 35 TL for children with those under 5 being free. On Sundays, the price goes up to 80/70/40 TL

Add roughly 30-40 TL if you're a tourist and not a local.

Aqua Marine

The Aqua Marine in Buyukcekmece is smaller in size and a little farther away (45 km) from central Istanbul. It has three big swimming pools and an assortment of slides and water games.

Entrance Fee Pricing

70 TL for men / 60 TL for women / 35 TL for children with those under 5 being free. On Sundays, the price goes up to 80/70/40 TL.

Add roughly 30-40 TL if you're a tourist and not a local.

Marina Aquapark Waterland

While it claims to be the largest, we would have to say that Marina Aquapark Waterland in Tuzla seems smaller than the others. It does, however, have the best view as it's right on Sea of Mamara. This is about 50 km from central Istanbul and while they're a lot of slides and options, they're all bunched quite close together.

Entrance Fee Pricing

65 TL for teens and adults / 45 TL for children 4-12 with those under 4 being free. On weekends the teen/adult price goes up to 85 TL.

Add roughly 30-40 TL if you're a tourist and not a local.

Eser Diamond Hotel & Convention Center

While not a true water per se, the Eser Diamond Hotel has a decent sized water slide and 3-lane toboggan slide. Considering the price of the hotel stay can be cheaper than a day out with the kids at the main water parks, it's definitely worth a look for those who are budget conscious.

Entrance Fee Pricing

Free for hotel guests.
